UI/UX DESIGNER | PRODUCT DESIGNER | FRONTEND DEVELOPER

UI/UX and product designer with a background spanning graphic design, frontend development, and WordPress, giving me a rare end-to-end perspective on how interfaces look, feel, and get built. I design in Figma and specialize in translating complex problems into intuitive, visually consistent experiences. Having worked with national and international organizations, I bring adaptability and a strong sense of context to every product I work on.
